

Happy, kind and curious children who are keen to learn and play.

Exciting, engaging and purposeful places to play.

Adults who care deeply about our children and can talk confidently about their progress, needs and interests.

Inside our Early Years, you will find...

A positive, inclusive and motivating environment for all children.

Strong relationships and communication with parents and carers.

High-quality interactions which help develop the children's communication and language skills.

At Hormead, we firmly believe in the significance of the Early Years and the importance of providing an EYFS curriculum and environment that develops a lifelong love of learning. We want all of our EYFS children to grow as resilient, kind, and happy individuals who are recognised for their unique and special talents and interests. Our EYFS setting provides an inclusive, caring and engaging place to learn and grow, supported by experienced, skilled staff.
